ANOTHER MURDER TRIAL

James Payne on Trial for Shooting

Robert Jackson. The second murder case for this week was taken up in the Criminal Court to-day, James Payne, a rather goodlooking colored man, was placed on trial, charged with having on the 4th of August last killed Robert Jackson by shooting him. He was indicted with Walker and James Tolliver, but a severance as to the defendants was secured, owing to variation in the lines of

During the selection of jurors the usual difficulty arose in connection with people who had read newspaper accounts of the murder and formed impressions. D. W. Glassic appeared for the defense, assisted by C. A. Brandenburg. Mr. Glassic contended that the formation of such an opinion rendered a man incompetent to sit upon the jury. Judge Montgomery said he did not desire to place himself in the attitude of being ready to excuse every gentleman who reads a newspaper from jury service. The real attitude of such a juror was that if the newspaper was correct then his impression was that it was a bad case. This would not pre-vent a fair consideration of the evidence.

The challenge for cause on this point was overruled. An exception was noted. Mr. Lipscomb and Mr. Mullowny ap-peared for the Government, Mr. E. A. Thomas, who appears as counsel for the Tolliver boys, was present to look after the interests of his clients.

Mr. Brandenburg advanced the suggestion during further examination as to the competence of jurors, that if the Court held to the course adopted there would scarcely be any necessity for a trial, as all would be necessary was to identify the defendant as the man mentioned in the newspaper accounts. The jurors, whom the defense desired to exuse, stated that their impression from the newspaper account was that the man was guilty. They expressed confidence in their abilities to try the case on the

JUMPED THE HACK BILL. An Englishman Who Got Himself Into

Trouble. C. F. Bunter, a young Englishman, accompanied by the coachman of Colonel Bonaparte, last evening hired a hack driven by Charlie Bruce in front of the Riggs House, asking him to take them where they could get some "feed."

They were driven to DeAtley's restaurant, where they remained about two hours, keeping the hack waiting.

The driver went in after his men and they declined to go with him or pay the 83 which he claimed. They finally agreed to go to the station-house and have it settled there. While being driven to the station-house the two men jumped from the carriage, smashing the glass and One escaped, but the driver captured Bunter and he was made to pay $3 in the Police Court this morning.

The gentlemen interested in the establishment of the proposed race-track at Highlands Station met at Willard's last night and heard the report of the surveyor on his survey on the site under consideration. Mr. George W. Jackson, the surveyor, reported that with an sackson, the surveyor, reported that with an expenditure of $15,000 the club could have one of the finest race tracks in the country. Thomas W. Smith was authorized to confer with gentlemen interested in the project of establishing the opposition race-track, if possible, to get a proposition from them of the terms on which they will co-operate in carrying out the enterprise. The club then adjourned until February 3, when they will receive Mr. Smith's report.

Mrs. McMurdy Denied a Divorce. Mrs. Marion E. McMurdy of this city petitioned Justice Durgo in New York for a decree setting aside her divorce from John H. McMurdy and the petition was depied. The casual visitor to the Washington

Extraordinary Sale of Men's Shirts.

Your appreciation of the unequalled values we have always offered is clearly evidenced by the unlimited quantities of these Shirts we have sold the past seven years. As we have before announced, these Shirts are the product of one of the best Square conducted, most thoroughly equipped, and most economically managed Shirt Factories in the United States—if not in the world-and, furthermore, they cannot be obtained elsewhere in Washingtionally progressive, and, being deter nined to keep ahead, rather than abreast of the times, they are now preparing to adopt some very valuable improvements in their plant, and in the Shirts they make, and in order to get into shape to properly cope with the increased demand sure to follow, they have decided to close out the present stock on hand at once at REDUCED PRICES.

Our 30c grade is excepted, as it is simply impossible to produce a better shirt to sell at the price without incurring a loss. Here are the reduced lines:

Our 50c Shirts are now 45c. Our 6216c Shirts are now 50c. Our 75c Shirts are now 6234c. Our 8716c Shirts are now 75c.

A word about these reductions. We never name a special or reduced price for a day or week; nor do we ever reduce a price on an article and then put the price up again later. When we reduced until the goods are sold, consequently these shirts can be bought at the reduced prices so long as the lots hold out. When the new improved shirts arrive their prices of course will be the former prices of our regular lines.

This is, without exception, the best op-portunity ever offered to buy Men's Shirts; and as the lots cannot last long, we advise an early response.
